3rd Annual Day - 23rd & 24th Mar 2012

The journey of a thousand miles always begins with a single step.

Good evening ladies & gentlemen,
The seed for Adhyapana School was sown on 3rd Jan '09 when the Vistara site was chosen to house the Visvesvarai dream project.

A famous sloka in Sanskrit goes thus -

सर्वं ज्ञेयं विद्यां ज्ञेयम् अद्वैतः अतुल्यम्
अक्षयत्वात् अनर्घत्वात् अक्षयत्वात् च सर्वदा ॥

Of all the things in this world knowledge is priceless for it is अक्षयम् - cannot be stolen, अनर्घम् - is most valuable and अक्षयम् - cannot be depleted.

From this sloka came our motto -

विद्यां ज्ञेयम् अतुल्यम्

Knowledge is priceless.

This year has been unique in many respects.

The most important of them being that we now stand as a formally affiliated member

 It is said 'Teachers create all other professions. Teachers turn ideas into action'.
 We have in our teachers 3 qualities that any effective teacher must possess - the intelligence quotient, the emotional quotient and the spiritual quotient. Our body of teachers is indeed the envy of other schools in Madurai and proudly we can say that we do boast of a wonderful team of dedicated and committed staff members.
 Another notable milestone this year has been the starting of our school in a Global School Partnership Program that in British

Councils, Chennai & UK. Adhyapana School and Sarum St. Paul's Primary School, Wiltshire, UK are successfully partnered and we have launched two joint projects to be done by them and us - the first one on Global Warming and Ecological Preservation and the second one on the London Olympics with special emphasis on conflicts and controversies therein. The Head teacher of St. Paul's Mrs. Lindsay ~~to~~ visited us here and has carried back lot of exciting news and ideas from here. I am slated to visit UK in April and later on HM, Mrs. Hilarie & Co-ordinator Mrs. Srividya are visiting Sarum in July after which the first team of student exchange is being planned.

Conclusion

1. As is our practice, I am now going to stop at this juncture for our students are ready to take you on a special round-up of our activities this year.
2. Dear parents, I take this opportunity to place on record our sincere appreciation of your trust and support. We assure you we shall not fail to live up to your expectations and ~~are~~ constantly pray to God for His benevolence.
3. Do enjoy this evening's prog. - Thank you for being here. God Bless!
